

GOLDEN TRUMPET AWARDS

For outstanding achievement in public relations

The Publicity Club of Chicago (PCC) is one of the nation's largest organizations of public relations professionals. Its Golden Trumpet Awards competition is sponsored annually to recognize achievements by public relations professionals in the Midwest.

PCC

PUBLICITY
CLUB OF CHICAGO

34 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

34TH ANNUAL

GOLDEN TRUMPET AWARDS

Thursday
May 20, 1993

Grand Ballroom
Hotel Inter-Continental Chicago

EDWIN J. SHAUGHNESSY QUALITY OF LIFE AWARD

For the awards entrant whose program makes the foremost contribution of the year to improve the quality of life in our society (all entrants eligible). This special award was established in 1977 in honor of Edwin J. Shaughnessy, PCC officer and member, who died in 1972 in an Illinois Central train crash.

SAVING LIVES THROUGH AWARENESS
Martha San Jose
San Jose & Assoc. Inc.